GOING THROUGH FIRE TO SAVE A WOMAN FROM DYING (Taken from the Text Guide Book English Please 2, pág. 33, 35)

The night was cold. It was raining and the road was wet. After work, Jodi Oakes was going to have dinner with a friend. She was very tired and while she was driving, she fell asleep.

With her foot still on the accelerator pedal, her car drove into a tree, and it caught fire.

While Michael Gay was driving home down the same road, he noticed the big fire.

A tree was burning and he became curious. He drove closer towards the fire. Then, he saw a car on fire. Michael heard screams, and realized there was a woman in the burning car, inside the car, Jodi was screaming.

She was trying to get out of the car but she couldn't.

Michael quickly called the police on his mobile phone. Then, he ran to door of the car, but it was stuck. He broke the window and he was pulling Jodi out of the car when the police and fire engine arrived.
